School cohort figures are compared to the national group figures for non-CLA and non-FSM. Significance is displayed for: all pupils against all pupils nationally; non-(CLA or FSM) against the national non-(CLA or FSM); and (CLA or FSM) against the national (CLA or FSM). Caution should be taken when interpreting the analysis for small cohorts.

This report enables schools to compare the level of their CLA/FSM pupils' performance to the national level of non-(CLA or FSM) performance with the intention of encouraging schools to set more ambitious achievement goals for their CLA/FSM pupils. However, this report is also intended to encourage schools to further explore the performance of their CLA/FSM pupils by using the full range of data available in RAISEonline.

The categorisation of pupils eligible for FSM changed in 2012. Pupils are classed as FSM if they have been eligible for and claiming FSM at any time in the last 6 years.

From 2012, the methodology for calculating the pupil group confidence interval has changed. The formula used now takes into account the range of scores for all pupils nationally rather than the range of scores in your school. Full details of the methodology used for the Value Added measure can be found in the Library.

School cohort figures are compared to the national group figures for non-CLA and non-FSM.

Significance is displayed for: all pupils against all pupils nationally; non-(CLA or FSM) against the national non-(CLA or FSM); and (CLA or FSM) against the national (CLA or FSM).

Caution should be taken when interpreting the analysis for small cohorts.

This report enables schools to compare the level of their CLA/FSM pupils' performance to the national level of non-(CLA or FSM) performance with the intention of encouraging schools to set more ambitious achievement goals for their CLA/FSM pupils.

However, this report is also intended to encourage schools to further explore the performance of their CLA/FSM pupils by using the full range of data available in RAISEonline.

The categorisation of pupils eligible for FSM changed in 2012. Pupils are classed as FSM if they have been eligible for and claiming FSM at any time in the last 6 years.
