Dear Parents and Carers

Having been back at St Wilfrid's for a week, as Acting Head of School, I am writing with a few updates:

Parent / Carer Emails from Google Classroom

Thank you for supporting your child to access their home learning on Google Classroom. Teachers are receiving some excellent work and we are proud of the hard work and determination of many of our students. We can provide you with regular information about your child's online engagement:

- Missing work—Work not turned in when the summary was sent.
- Upcoming work—Work that's due today and tomorrow (for daily emails) or that's due in the upcoming week (for weekly emails).
- Class activities—Announcements, assignments, and questions recently posted by teachers.

To get email summaries of your child's work, you should accept an email invitation which will arrive over the next few days (you can unsubscribe at any time).

Parent / Carer Survey

After a week of learning from home, we are keen to receive feedback from parents about our remote provision to inform the development of our home learning provision. In order to collect this feedback, we have designed a short questionnaire which can be found by following this link:

Tutor Time Activities

From Monday 18 January, we would like to be able to engage our children with morning worship and a wellbeing 'check in' at the start and end of the week. We will run tutor periods via Google Classroom on Mondays and Fridays, from 8.45-9.00am. We hope that this will help your child to continue to feel part of the school community, even though they are studying at home.

Asymptomatic Testing

Our testing site is now up and running; the small number of students attending school have been tested. Our students were fabulous and followed all instructions clearly and efficiently – well done all! Teachers are also tested weekly at our site. Many thanks to those staff who have worked hard to establish the testing centre and to make sure that it runs safely.

This remains a period of great uncertainty and we are continually reviewing and refining our systems and practices to allow all members of our school community to be the best that they can be.

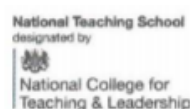

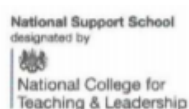

If you have any questions or queries, please contact your child's Head of House.

Many thanks for your continued support.

Kind regards

D Ritchie
