

Film Studies

A Level

Course Summary

Hollywood 1930–1990

American Film since 2005

British Film since 1995

Global film

Documentary

Silent Film Movement

International Film

History of Film

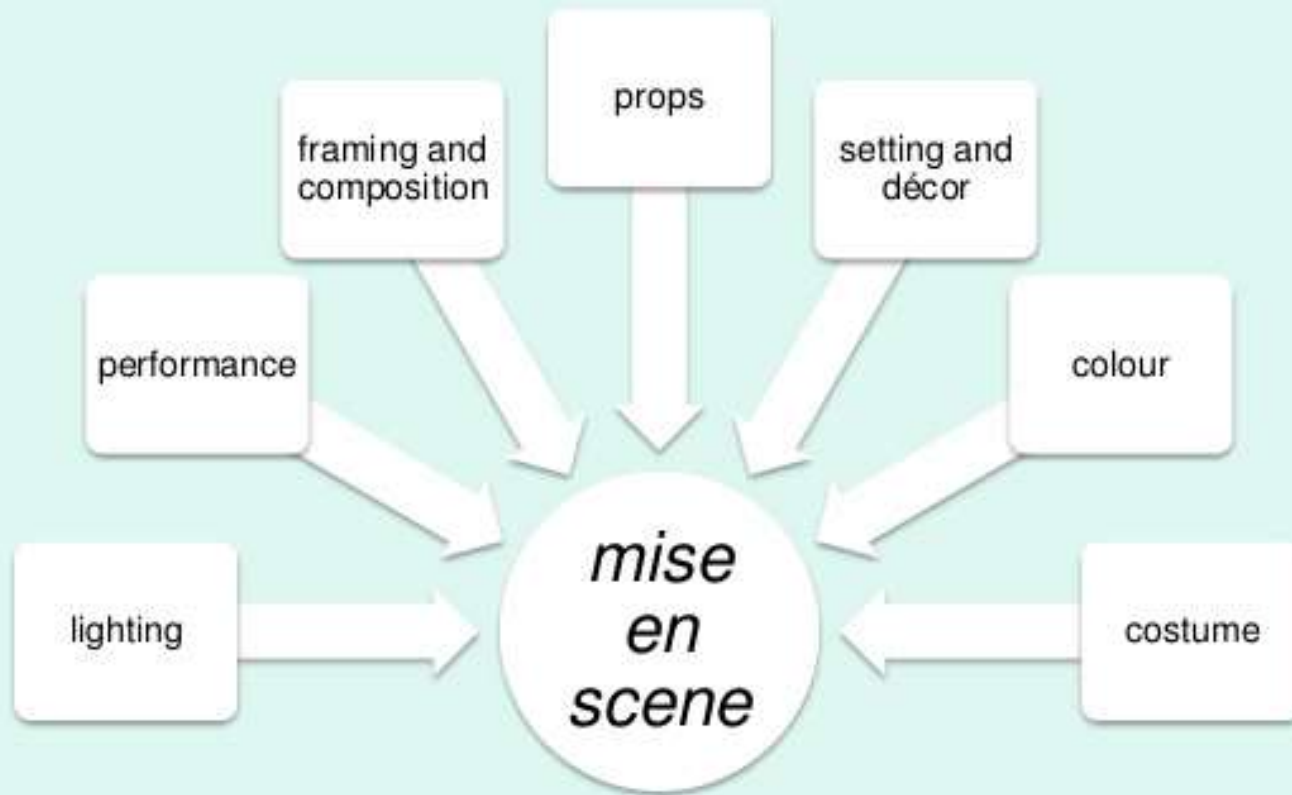

NEA- 30% OF THE
QUALIFICATION

An opportunity to be creative!

Either- create a short film 4-5 minutes long
OR

Create a Screenplay

elements of mise en scene

How do these different elements interact with one another?

How do
you analyse
a film?

Career Opportunities

- The film and media industry is a growing sector
- Film Studies complements subjects like: English Language, Literature, History, Psychology
- Offers an essay-based, academic subject that is an alternative to studying Literature
- This A Level can lead to careers in:
 - Media and journalism
 - Copy writing
 - The film industry
 - Any unrelated field- an opportunity to take an A Level you enjoy and can convert into UCAS points

Is Film Studies the right course for me?

- Do you enjoy watching lots of films from different genres?
- Do you enjoy talking about films with other people?
- Are you interested in producing your own films?
- Are you capable of writing essays?

2 EXAM PAPERS AT
THE END OF Y13
BOTH 2 1/2 HOURS
LONG

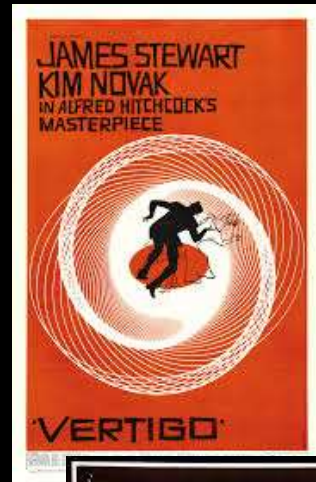

Some of the areas you will study include...

Silent movies

The history of the film industry

Some of the areas you will study include...

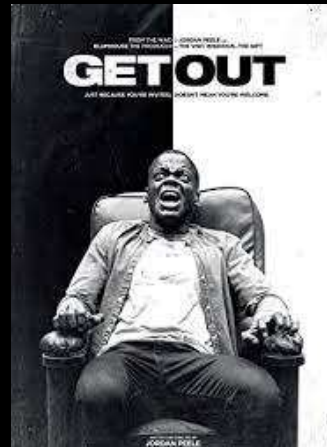

Hollywood 1930-1990

An exploration of films from the classical 'Hollywood' and 'New Hollywood' eras

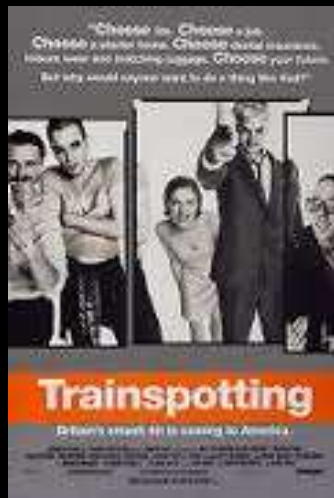

Some of the areas you will study include...

Modern American
Films

Mainstream
Hollywood
blockbusters and
independent films

Some of the areas you will study include...

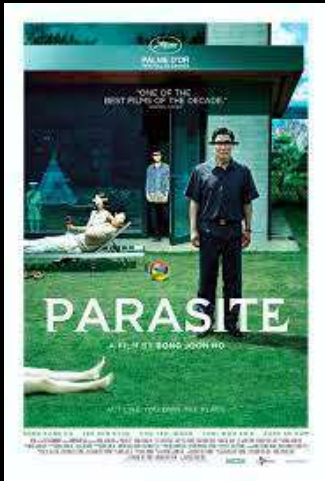

British Films and the British Film Industry

History of the British film industry
Modern British texts

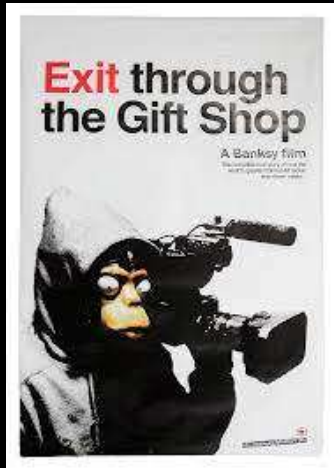

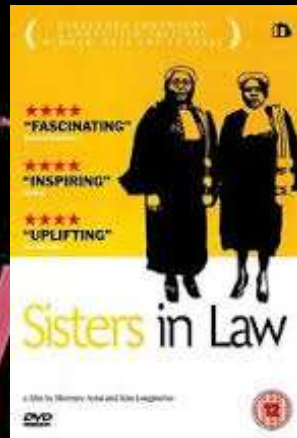

Some of the areas you will study include...

Non-English
language
films

European films and films from outside of Europe

Some of the areas you will study include...

Documentary
films

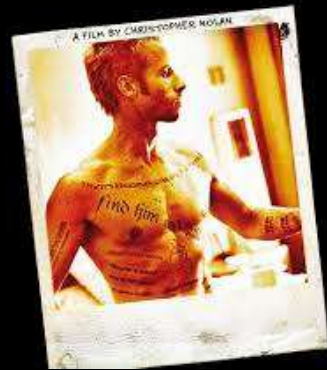

Different styles
of documentaries

Applying
Critical theory

Some of the areas you will study include...

MEMENTO

Experimental
films

Narrative
theory

Auteur theory

Coursework

Everyone will be required to either produce a short film that is between 4-5 minutes long

Or write a screenplay that is 2500 words.

You will also have to produce a written evaluation

30% of final grade

Film Studies A Level

- An opportunity to produce a creative NEA
- Study films from a range of genres, movements and time periods
- Essay based subject with positive outcomes for students
- Compliments subjects like: history, English Lit/Lang and Psychology
- Looking for more information? Come and speak to Mrs Collings-Backhouse

Film Studies A Level

- An opportunity to produce a creative NEA
- Study films from a range of genres, movements and time periods
- Essay based subject with positive outcomes for students
- Compliments subjects like: history, English Lit/Lang and Psychology
- Looking for more information? Come and speak to Mrs Collings-Backhouse

Film Studies A Level

- An opportunity to produce a creative NEA
- Study films from a range of genres, movements and time periods
- Essay based subject with positive outcomes for students
- Compliments subjects like: history, English Lit/Lang and Psychology
- Looking for more information? Come and speak to Mrs Collings-Backhouse

Film Studies A Level

- An opportunity to produce a creative NEA
- Study films from a range of genres, movements and time periods
- Essay based subject with positive outcomes for students
- Compliments subjects like: history, English Lit/Lang and Psychology
- Looking for more information? Come and speak to Mrs Collings-Backhouse

Film Studies A Level

- An opportunity to produce a creative NEA
- Study films from a range of genres, movements and time periods
- Essay based subject with positive outcomes for students
- Compliments subjects like: history, English Lit/Lang and Psychology
- Looking for more information? Come and speak to Mrs Collings-Backhouse

Film Studies A Level

- An opportunity to produce a creative NEA
- Study films from a range of genres, movements and time periods
- Essay based subject with positive outcomes for students
- Compliments subjects like: history, English Lit/Lang and Psychology
- Looking for more information? Come and speak to Mrs Collings-Backhouse